

Donor-Advised Funds

Where Your Generosity Grows

WHAT IS A DONOR-ADVISED FUND?

A Donor-Advised Fund, or DAF, is a simple, powerful way to manage your charitable giving. Think of it as your personal Tzedakah account - designed to help you and your family support the causes you care about, while maximizing tax benefits and making your philanthropy more strategic, flexible, and impactful.

EVEN YOUR FEES DO GOOD

All DAF providers charge annual administrative and investment fees. At the Atlanta Jewish Foundation, fund fees are reinvested into the Jewish community through programmatic work, staff support, and grantmaking.

Annual Admin Fee	Annual Asset Fee
$250	Up to $500,000/One Hundred Basis Points (1%)
	$500,000 to $10 Million/ Fifty Basis Points (0.5%)
	Over $10Million/Thirty Basis Points (0.3%)
